THREE ITALIANS KILLED.

Following a series of crimes attributed to so-called "Black Hand" societies in the Italian quarter of New Orleans, one of the worst tragedies yet connected with that section took place early yesterday, when three Italians were shot to death.

According to the police these men were killed as a result of an attempt to extort money from Pietro Gioscona, a wealthy Italian wine merchant, of New Orleans. Gioscona and his son told the police that these men had frequently bought wine from them by the barrel and had invariably refused to pay for it.

According to their story the three forced them to ship a barrel of wine to a point in Louisana Tuesday, and returned early yesterday and ordered them to prepare a meal. The elder Gioscona suspected that trouble would ensue, and hid a repeating rifle near the table. When one of the visiting Italians drew a heavy revolver and ordered them to produce money and valuables, the elder Gioscona answered with a shot from the rifle. The man he fired at fell dead and the other two attempted to escape. One was killed before he had gotten 10 feet from the table. The other reached a staircase, only to receive a bullet in his brain. He started down the steps, his body falling into the courtyard below.

Only one of the Italians who was killed has been identified. He is known to the police by the name of Barracca.

Yesterday another Italian, badly wounded, was found in a shed near the Gioscona home. He was identified as one of those who had attended Gioscona's feast, the only one who escaped with his life. His wound is dangerous.

The police asked Gioscona if, in desperation, after numerous "Black Hand" schemes had been practiced on him, he had not invited the Italians to his home for the purpose of squaring accounts. This Gioscona stoutly denied, saying he had no intention of firing on his guests until it became necessary for him to protect his home.

Gioscona is regarded as one of the wealthiest Italians in the south. His home, where the shooting occurred, was occupied by General Beauregard when that section was the most fashionable of the old French quarters, and is one of the most historic spots in New Orleans.

Stomach Troubles.

Many remarkable cures of stomach troubles have been effected by Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. DEFENDS RAILROADS.

At the annual dinner of the Alumni Association of Rutgers College, New Brunswick, N. J., yesterday L. F. Loree, president of the Delaware and Hudson Company and chairman of the executive committee of the Kansas City Southern Railroad, protested against attacks on the railroads.

"For a number of years the railroads have been subjected to a great concerted attack," said Mr. Loree. "The skill of the employes, the character of the officers and the honesty of the capitalization have alike been impugned. Back of all stands the sinister threat to segregate from all other forms of investment the investment in railroad securities, to assert over such investment a high-handed control, assuming no responsibilities for losses, but limiting any possible gains to a saving-bank rate of interest. Should this effort be successful it is certain to degrade the employes, to drive out the capable officers and to lead to the refusal of investors to make new contributions to capital. If such an effort were brought about the consequences to the community would be more far-reaching than one likes to contemplate."

LEMOINE "DIAMONDS."

The Lemoine diamond case came to a sensational ending with an unexpected climax in Paris yesterday afternoon. Lemoine has fled, and his famous formula for the manufacture of diamonds is a fantastic farce. Henry Lemoine was taken into custody a few months ago on the charge of having secured money from Julius Wernher, the English diamond merchant, on false pretenses.

Lemoine claimed he could manufacture diamonds, and it is alleged that on this representation he secured a large sum of money from Mr. Wernher. Lemoine was released to give him an opportunity to vindicate himself by exhibiting stones of his own manufacture. When the case was called in Paris yesterday, Lemoine did not appear, and it was announced that he had fled.

In the presence of Wernher the court opened the envelope said to contain Lemoine's formula. The paper inside was read, but it contained only a jumble of fantastic and senseless phrases.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

THURSDAY EVENING, JUNE 18, 1908

THE national republican convention at Chicago keeps right along in the work planned for it by President Roosevelt and though somewhat delayed in its progress by reason of the demands for a prolonged session by the Chicago hotel keepers and others who want to get their money back, the result will be as arranged before the delegates met. To show how absolutely the president has the convention in control the following dispatch sent out from Chicago last night is published:

The word that was to come from Washington Wednesday morning to settle the vice presidency did not arrive, nor, indeed, is it expected until the platform has been adopted and Mr. Taft has been nominated. By that time the administration will know its exact strength. The vote on the platform will show Washington whether it is strong enough to dictate the entire ticket or whether it will be wiser to remain content with naming the head of the ticket and permitting the allies to again make Mr. Fairbanks the vice presidential candidate.

THE schools of this city—public and private—have closed and twenty-five hundred pupils, boys and girls—white and colored—have entered upon their long vacation of approximately three months. How they will spend their time is a matter of grave consideration, but it rests with them or their parents whether they will fritter it away or improve it by studying or engaging in some light but useful occupation which might benefit both their minds and bodies. It is hoped at any rate that they may not be seen continually on the streets, for even if they can find nothing else to do they can at least stay at home and assist their parents.

THE General Education Board finds that, within the last twelve months in this country, $23,127,762 has been donated to the cause of higher education. The board might have added that the results are hardly commensurate with this large expenditure of money.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, D. C., June 18.

By far the best and cleverest bit of strategy yet played in the present political campaign was that which was manipulated successfully in the Chicago convention yesterday, when the Roosevelt demonstration was brought out by Senator Lodge. This was clearly made known today by officials "in" at the White House and War Department. The entire demonstration from beginning to end was purposely brought out and handled exactly to programme, according to information which has developed here today. The head of the executive department who was with both the president and Secretary Taft at different periods during the 45 minutes of uncontrolled enthusiasm, can be quoted today as saying: "I regard this affair of yesterday as the cleverest bit of work yet done in behalf of Mr. Taft. Even as the Taft forces practically eliminated the allies in the contest last week, so did they yesterday, by pulling off, according to schedule, this remarkable demonstration, and anticipate a stampede for Mr. Roosevelt today; it was the power of Roosevelt and Taft eliminating Roosevelt as a presidential victim. The whole plan was framed up on the long distance 'phone on Tuesday, between the president and Senator Lodge and Mr. Taft and Hitchcock. It was held that there was just so much steam to be shot off, and the plug was opened by Senator Lodge at the psycological moment.

Upon receipt of advices from Panama as to the situation there, Secretary Taft and Secretary Root were in conference with the president. While the situation at Chicago also was discussed considerable attention was given to a review of the latest advices from Panama. While these are not being made public it is understood that Amador has protested against the dispatch of the additional 800 marines and two warships to Colon within a few days. Senor Arango, Minister of Pamana, called on Secretary Root. He stated that while he had no fresh advices, the situation was realized as very serious, and he thought the dispatch of the marines would prevent any outbreak.

Mrs. Alida Pitman, suffering from the delusion that she had received a message from the spirit world to kill herself, drank a quantity of carbolic acid this morning in the cellar of the home of her brother-in-law, Marion Gamble, 1336 Pennsylvania avenue, southeast. She was found dead by Mrs. Gamble shortly before 7 o'clock.

Senor Nejia, the Spanish minister called on Secretary Root today and reported that the authorities at Madrid had discovered a private office from which the swindlers operated who sent to the United States fraudulent letters in the interest of the "Spanish Estate Swindler." Mr. Mejia stated that the person in charge of the office has been arrested and his books, which contained the addresses of a number of American citizens had been seized.

Cost of Mimic War.

New York, June 18.—To avoid shot and shell from the New York harbor batteries which were repelling a mimic attack on the city, the Cunard steamer Lusitania was held up so long that it is unlikely she will break any records this trip to Europe, and as a consequence of the fire of the big guns appraisers who are busy today in the shattered homes of many of the bay residents estimate that Uncle Sam will have damages to the amount of $20,000 to pay. The mimic invading fleet was sighted last night and theoretically sunk.

Virginia News.

The $25,000 Norfolk and Western Railway station in Luray, which was destroyed by fire one week ago, will be rebuilt at once.

Alexander J. Wedderburn, jr., of Fairfax county, has filed a suit for divorce against his wife Helen Pollock Wedderburn a non resident.

A. R. Burnham, judge of the court of appeals of Richmond, Ky., was elected national committeeman by the Kentucky delegation at Chicago today, succeeding John W. Yerkes.

The State Corporation Commission today rendered an opinion in which it sustains the application of the Bell Telephone Company in its demand to increase the rates for the night service to the same as now charged for the day rate.

Messrs. Davis & Davis, Washington patent attorneys, report the grant, this week, to citizens of this state, of the following patents: L. B. Cox, of Norfolk, mail-bag deliverer; I. Peirce, of Tazewell, carbid-feeder for acetylene generators.

Eighty-seven students were graduated from the Washington and Lee University. The office of dean of the university was created, and Dr. Harry Donald Campbell was elected to fill it. The degree of doctor of letters was conferred on Mr. John L. Williams, of Richmond, and that of doctor of laws on Senator Owen, of Oklahoma.

The affairs of the Buckingham Bank are apparently much muddled. Cashier Allan K. Fawcette disappeared from his home at that place, Sunday afternoon. His wife, who is now in Buckingham, knows nothing of his whereabouts. The shortage is estimated to be about $6,000. Judge Gordon has been appointed a receiver for the institution.

The plant and offices of the Richmond Stove Company were practically destroyed by fire which orginated on the third floor of the building last night. The building covered an entire block in the heart of Richmond's business center and adjoined the $2,000,000 plant of the American Tobacco Company, whose private apparatus was kept constantly engaged extinguishing sparks which fell on the property. The loss is estimated at $200,000, with only $100,000 insurance. Two hundred employes of the company are temporarily out of work.

THE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION

Yesterday's proceedings in the national republican convention in Chicago showed that the administration has complete control of the situation. Its mastery was made manifest from the very outset. The report of the committee on credentials, seating the delegates whose seats had been contested, was a mere formal indorsement of what the national committee had done last week. By adopting the report the convention gave seats to more than 200 additional Taft delegates, so that now the Taft forces on the floor amount to over 700, and Mr. Taft's nomination on the first ballot is unquestioned even by the allies.

And what is more important, the day showed that these delegates are well disciplined. As if, perhaps, to test them, Mr Lodge in his address, when assuming the chair, deliberately invited the "stampede" to Mr. Roosevelt that has hung like a shadow on the horizon of Mr. Taft's success. He is the best hated and the most popular man in America today," said Mr. Lodge, and then stopped to wait for the storm. It came like a whirlwind; it swept over the great hall and the audience was carried away. For 49 minutes the spectators went insane, but the majority of them sat unmoved.

In reply to the president Senator Lodge said: "The president's refusal of a renomination, dictated by the loftiest motives and by a noble loyalty to American tradition, is final and irrevocable. But, although the president retires, he leaves his policies behind him. To those policies the republican party stands pledged. We must carry out as we have begun, regardless of the radicals of reaction and the radicals of revolution."

The Taft forces again showed their control of the convention when the Burke resolution cutting down the number of southern delegates was defeated by a decisive vote of 471 to 507. Here the line was sharply drawn. The delegates that have aligned themselves with the allied opposition to Taft voted for the Burke resolution; Mr. Taft's friends opposed it.

Immediately after the roll call on Burke's resolution the convention adjourned till noon tomorrow.

Vice President Fairbanks sent a letter to Senator Hemenway again saying that he would not be a candidate for the second place on the ticket.

After holding off all day the subcommittee at 10 p. m. agreed to submit an anti-injunction plank to the full committee on resolutions.

So recalcitrant did the committee on resolutions seem in regard to the administration's anti-injunction plank that this veiled threat was made by its advocates:

"If the republican convention deliberately refuses to adopt that platform on which Secretary Taft feels he can make a winning race the republican convention will have to nominate a man who needs no platform to win."

The injunction plank, approved last night by the subcommittee on resolutions, asserts that the republican party always has and always will uphold the processes and proceedings of the courts, and has absolute faith in their integrity and uprightness.

Nevertheless, it believes that the injunction practice should be so modified as to provide that only where irreparable damage to property is imminent the courts may grant injunctions without notice.

It is also specified that, in cases where notice is given, the time shall not exceed seven day.

Surprise at Sentences.

Vovorossysk, Russia, June 18.—There is general surprise here over the leniency of the court martial in the sentences imposed upon the leaders of the "Vovorossysk republic." Death sentences were expected in the cases of several, but the most punishment inflicted was fifteen years at hard labor for the president of the "republic." Two received sentences of ten years at hard labor, sixty-six received shorter sentences and forty-one were acquitted. The fact that the offense complained of took place three years ago probably accounts for the light sentences, which are not at all in keeping with the wholesale death sentences that are being passed for present-day offenses of similar character.

News of the Day.

Col. Joseph Noble, assistant chief of the division of loans and currency of the Treasury Department, was stricken with heart disease in his office in Washington yesterday and died a few minutes later.

Mrs. Charles Kaufman, who before her marriage, a year ago, to Mr. Kaufman, of Boston, was the widow of Col. Alexander Brown, the Baltimore banker, died at the Hebrew Hospital yesterday in Baltimore from a stroke of apoplexy.

It is said that since the anti-betting law became effective the Brooklyn Jockey Club has lost $30,000. As a result of the falling off in the attendance and incidentally the gate receipts, the Brighton Beach Racing Association has decided to retrench.

Representative A. A. Wiley, of Alabama, died at Hot Springs, Va., yesterday. He suffered for weeks with inflammatory rheumatism and general physical breakdown. Ariosto Appling Wiley was born November 6, 1848, at Olayton, Barbour county, Ala.

Dr. George J. Preston, 50 years old, died last night of liver trouble at his home in Baltimore. He was born in 1858 in Lexington, Va. His father was Col. J. T. L. Preston, former superintendent of the Virginia Military Institute and a professor in Washington and Lee University.

Mrs. Mary Scott Harrje, wife of Augustus Harrje, the millionaire paper manufacturer, whose unsuccessful divorce litigation against his wife has been widely published, won another victory at Pittsbury yesterday when, by a decision of Judge Frazer, she was awarded $5,000 a year alimony, $26,750 for court expenses and $7,000 for attorneys' fees.

Announcement was made at the State Department yesterday of the appointments of commissioner of the United States to the joint international commission to investigate the opium question in the far East. The commission will meet at Shanghai on the first of next January. Similar commissions are being appointed by the various other world powers.

The will of Oliver H. P. Belmont, who died June 10, was filed in New York yesterday by attorneys for Mrs. Alva E Belmont, the widow and sole executrix. It occupies two-thirds of a type-written sheet of paper. The will is dated January 16, 1896. The widow is left all the real and personal property of Mr. Belmont and is appointed the sole executrix. The amount of the estate is not given, but is believed to exceed $5,000,000.

The Chemical and the American Exchange national banks of New York have broken all banking traditions by the voluntary return of the government deposits held by them. The deposits, it has become known, were returned on Monday, presumably because of unwillingness of the banks to comply with the section of the emergency currency law, which compels the payment of interest at the rate of at least 1 per cent. on all government deposits.

Returns received from Tuesday's democratic primary in Florida indicate the nomination of Albert Gilchrist for governor over J. N. C. Stockton, who favored prohibition. Gilchrist early in the campaign declared himself in favor of local option. The contest for the United States Senate is close, returns indicating that Duncan H. Fletcher leads Gov. Broward by about 1,000 votes. Danielish Mays, for Congress in the Third district, has probably defeated J. Walter Kehoe.

An attempt was made in Baku yesterday to kill the Baku chief of police, Mney, by the explosion of two powerful infernal machines. The chief and two policemen were wounded and a sergeant of police was killed. The police were lured by the men who planned the outrage to make a search of an unoccupied building. While they were going through the building two bombs exploded and the house was wrecked. The sergeant was killed outright, while M. Ney and the two policemen were hurled through a second-story window and landed in the street.

The lives of 200 persons were imperilled in New York early yesterday by an incendiary, who made a futile attempt to burn a big tenement house in Stanton street. The stairways from the ground to the roof had been saturated with kerosene and the torch had been applied on the lower floor; but one of the tenants, returning late, saw the blaze and sent an alarm through the house. Two hundred men, women and children tumbled hurriedly out of their beds and rushed to the street in scant attire, while a policeman and several helpers checked the incipient blaze with buckets of water. The fire was extinguished before much damage had been done. Yesterday's attempt to burn the house was the second within two months.

BISHOP BRENT.

Delegates to the Episcopal diocesan convention of Washington, yesterday evening again elected Rt. Rev. Charles Henry Brent, bishop of the Philippines, as bishop of Washington.

Bishop Brent was elected on the fifth ballot by a small majority, following repeated efforts on the part of those disapproving his selection to introduce a communication tending to show the distinguished churchman would not accept the office were the honor again tendered to him.

The first ballot stood:

	Clerical.	Lay.
Rt. Rev. Charles H. Brent	28	27
Rev. Dr. Randolph H. McKim	24	28
Rev. George Calvert Carter	5	15
Rev. William M. Grosvenor	2	...
Rev. M. W. Morgan-Jones	3	2
Rev. C. E. Buck	1	...
Rev. Thomas J. Packard	1	...
Rev. Alfred Harding	4	6

The fifth and deciding ballot stood as follows:

	Clerical.	Lay.
Rt. Rev. Charles H. Brent	37	38
Rev. Dr. Randolph H. McKim	20	26
Rev. George Calvert Carter	8	5
Rev. William Grosvenor	1	...
Rev. P. M. Rhinelander	1	1

At the annual diocesan convention last month Bishop Brent was elected to the Washington bishopric, and, on being so advised, cabled to Rev. Dr. Randolph McKim, president of the convention, that he could not accept. This action resulted in the special convention yesterday at the Church of the Epiphany.

Because of the feeling that Bishop Brent may again decline a motion was put and carried calling for the reconvening of the convention on October 1 should any emergency necessitating it arise.

Today's Telegraphic News.

Must Pay Taxes in Person.

[Special Dispatch to the Alexandria Gazette.]

Richmond, Va., June 18.—The Court of Appeals sitting in Wytheville has decided that a man must pay his poll taxes in person in order to vote. The case came up on an appeal. It was that of Tazwell against Treasurer Herman, of Norfolk. Treasurer Herman refused to allow Tazwell to pay his taxes by a messenger, and the suit was brought. The case was decided against Tazwell in the Norfolk court, but he took it to the Court of Appeals. The decision is of tremendous import nce throughout the state.

Republican National Convention.

Chicago, June 18.—The republican national convention was called to order at 10:17 this morning.

Senator Hopkins, chairman of the committee on resolutions, reported the draft of the platform. By a vote of 35 to 16 the resolutions committee early this morning adopted the anti-injunction plank. The entire platform was completed at 2:44.

Among those who spoke in favor of the anti-injunction plank was Grosner, of Virginia.

It was finally adopted by the vote of the representation of the following States:

Alabama, Arkansas, Connecticut, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Illinois, Indiana, Kansas, Kentucky Maryland, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Mississippi, Missouri, Nebraska, New York, North Carolina, North Dakota, Ohio, Oklahoma, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Dakota, Texas, Tennessee, Virginia, Washington, Wisconsin, Wyoming, Alaska, Arizona, New Mexica, Porto Rico and the Philippines.

The vote in opposition was cast by the following States:

California, Colorado, Idaho, Iowa, Maine, Michigan, Montana, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Jersey, Oregon, Utah, Vermont, West Virginia, District of Columbia and Hawaii.

Reference was made during the discussion to the speech made by Samuel Gompers, President of the American Federation of Labor, before the sub-committee yesterday morning in which the labor leader made an implied threat that unless the demands of the labor element were complied with there might be a revolutionary movement stirred in this country similar to that which has appeared in several countries of Europe.

Congressman Sereno E. Payne, referring to this, said that he "had not got so low as to take all of that kind of talk from Gompers," and that he would prefer to retire to private life than to do so.

The platform as submitted deals at length in claims of the party upon the country for a continuance of its policies, referring to many things in connection with its past history and its present state under the administration of Theodore Roosevelt.

Considerable space is consumed in setting forth commercial conditions during the past decade, and it declares that "under the guidance of the republican principles the American people have become the richest nation in the world. The United States now owns one-fourth of the world's wealth and makes one-third of all modern manufactured products. And yet her great natural wealth has been scarcely touched. With gratitude for God's bounty, with pride in the splendid productiveness of the past and with confidence in the plenty and prosperity of the future, the republican party declares for the principle that in the development and enjoyment of wealth so great and blessings so benign there shall be equal opportunity for all."

"The republican party declares unequivocally for the revision of the tariff by a special session of Congress immediately following the inauguration of the next president. We favor the establishment of maximum and minimum rates to be administered by the president under limitations fixed in the law, the maximum to be available to meet discriminations by foreign countries against American goods entering their markets, and the minimum to represent the normal measure of protection at home, the aim and purpose of the republican policy being not only to preserve, without excessive duties, that security against foreign competition to which American manufactures, farmers and producers are entitled, but also to maintain the high standard of living of the wage earners of this country, and in the Philippines, we believe in a free interchange of products with such limitations as to sugar and tobacco as will afford adequate protection to domestic interests."

The following is the substance of other planks:

The party is committed to the development of a permanent currency system, responding to our greatest needs, and the appointments of the national monetary commission by the present Congress, which will impartially investigate all proposed metods, insures the early realization of this purpose.

We favor the establishment of a postal savings bank system for the convenience of the people and the encouragement of thrift.

The republican party passed the Sherman anti-trust law over democratic opposition and enforced it after democratic dereliction. It has been a wholesome instrument for good in the hands of a wide and fearless administration. But experience has shown that its effectiveness can be strengthened and its real objects better attained by such amendments as will give to the federal government greater supervision and control over, and secure greater publicity in, the management of that class of corporations engaged in interstate commerce having power and opportunity to effect monopolies.

We approve the enactment of the railroad rate law and the vigorous enforcement by the present administration of the statutes against rebates and discriminations.

The republican party will uphold at all times the authority and integrity of the courts, States and federal, and will ever insist that their powers to enforce their process and to protect life, liberty and property, shall be preserved inviolate. We believe, however, that the rules of procedure in the federal courts with respect to the issuance of the writ of injunction, or temporary restraining order, should be issued without notice except in cases of irreparable injury which would result from delay, in which case the case bearing thereafter should be prepared.

The republican party has been more than fifty years the consistent friend of the American negro. We demand equal justice for all men without regard to race or color; we declare for the enforcement in letter and spirit of the thirteenth, fourteenth and fifteenth amendments to the constitution which were designed for the protection and advancement of the negro, and we condemn all devices that have for their real aim his disfranchisement for reasons of color alone.

The camp of the American Federation of Labor at the Hotel Kaiserhof was overcast with gloom today as a result of the refusal of the committee to adopt the Gompers anti-injunction plank in the platform. The committee's plank is regarded by the labor leaders as being of no aid whatever.

Following the conclusion of the reading by Senator Hopkins, Representative Cooper, of Wisconsin, presented on behalf of the minority a report protesting against certain sections of the platform as framed up by the committee and offering sub-planks. He announced that he alone signed the report.

With only 25 of the Wisconsin's delegation, one New Jersey delegate and two of North Dakota voting in the affirmative, the entire minority report with the exception of the planks referring to the election of United States senators by the people, the ascertaining of physical valuation of railroads and the publication of campaign expenses, were rejected. The vote was 952 to 28.

The labor plank of the minority report is as follows:

"We pledge the republican party to make a law prohibiting injunctions in cases growing out of labor disputes. We pledge the party to a law which shall provide that in the procedure of the trial for contempt of court there shall be a jury trial unless the contempt be committed in the presence of the court or so near it as to interfere with the administration of the law."

After the defeat of the minority report, the platform as presented by the majority was adopted.

The roll call of States was subsequently started for president nominations when Representative Boutell nominated J. G. Cannon.

Representative Fordney seconded the nomination of Mr. Cannon.

Congressman Wm. A. Rodenberg, of east St. Louis, Ills., seconded the nomination of Speaker Cannon and reviewed his career in public life.

Representative Handley placed Mr. Fairbanks in nomination.

At 2.05 o'clock Gen. Woodford, of New York, placed in nomination Gov. Hughes, of that State.

At 2:21 Secretary Taft was placed in nomination by Hon. T. E Burton, of Ohio. This was the signal for a Taft ovation and at 2:42 two-thirds of the delegates were standing in their chairs shouting for Taft.

After the cheering had ceased Dr. W. O. Emory, colored, of Ohio, placed Senator Foraker in nomination.

The plan is to nominate Secretary Taft for president before the adjournment of today's session.

From Cuba.

Colon, Panama, June 18.—Keen interest is manifested here in the cable reports from Washington announcing that several warship and more than a thousand additional marines are being sent to the Isthmus for the purpose of preventing riots in the approaching elections and also prevent a possible revolution. This news is received with open regret on the part of government officials, who apparently realize that it means the defeat of Gen. Arias. Likewise, Senor Obaldia and his followers have taken cheerful confident that if the polls are protected their candidates will be elected by an overwhelming majority.

Reports received at both Colon and Panama cities show that the iron hands of Amador and Arias are being tightened in a most menacing manner at every possible point. A large number of persons known to be Obaldia's sympathizers have been thrown in prison on false charges and nearly every government clerk suspected of being amicable to Obaldia has been discharged, about 500 in all.

Acting under instructions from the capital the authorities everywhere are promising taxation exemption to all Obaldia followers who will vote for Arias. This situation is being carefully looked into by a special committee appointed by Mr. Obaldia himself, which will submit the report to Mr. Blackburn.

Yacht Race.

New York, June 18.—In a match race from Bermuda to Sandy Hook lightship the schooner yacht Zahrab, which finished second in the Marblehead-Bermuda race, defeated the Esperanza. On the return trip the Zahrab encountered heavy northwest winds in the gulf stream.

His Wife Won't Let Him.

New York, June 18.—"His wife won't let him" is the reason President Roosevelt will not take a third term. At least that is what Mrs. Robert McCormack, wife of the former ambassador to France and Russia, said here today on arriving from Chicago to sail on the Kaiserine Auguste Victoria for Europe.

ASTONISHING RESULTS

Follow Each New Discovery of Science.

The great strides that medical science has made in the last few years is due to the germ theory. When the germ of a disease has been discovered, the doctors have not been slow in finding a drug to kill it. In a few years, it will be rare to find a bald-headed man or woman. The falling out of hair is due to a dandruff germ, and now it has been discovered how to kill this germ. The remedy used is called Newbro's Herpicide. Its success has been marvelous. Not a failure has been so far reported. It is also a delightful hair dressing free from oil or sticky substances. Try it and be convinced of its actual merit.

Sold by Ernest L. Allen & Co., agents. Two sizes 50c and $1.00. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. 55

New York Stock Market.

New York, June 18.—The stock market opened irregular. At the end of fifteen minutes Union Pacific had lost its improvement and Canadian Pacific gained 1-2. The market then became irregular with some of the leaders receding after their early gains.

In the last half of the forenoon Louisville was forced down over two points on a few sales. The rest of the list was dull with prices shading off a trifle.

St. John, N. B., June 18.—Having eloped, Miss Minnie Tweedie, daughter of Lemuel J. Tweedie, lieutenant governor of New Brunswick, is speeding to Europe today as the bride of David McEwan, her father's coachman. Some days ago it became known to Lieutenant Governor Tweedie that a love affair existed between his daughter and the coachmen, who was promptly discharged. Undisturbed by this, however, Miss Tweedie left home for a visit married the coachman and fled.

Will Not Speak for Debs.

London, June 18.—The Countess of Warwick denied today that she is going to America in the fall to make speeches in behalf of Eugene V. Debs, the presidential nominee of the socialists.

THIRD INDICTMENT.

The federal grand jury in New York, yesterday, found a third indictment against Alfred H. Curtis, president, and Charles W. Morse, vice president of the National Bank of North America, charging them with making false entries in reports to the comptroller of the currency and the misapplication of funds for speculative purposes amounting to about $1,250,000. Shortly after the indictment had been returned Curtis and Morse appeared before Judge Hough in the United States Circuit Court and entered tentative pleas of not guilty. The defendants, whose trial on the previous indictments in connection with the bank's affairs, has been set for the October term of the federal court, were given until July 1 to withdraw their pleas or demur to the indictment.

UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA.

The closing exercises of the eighty-third session of the University of Virginia took place last night before a large audience. One hundred and thirty-five diplomas were awarded the graduates of the various departments.

The exercises were presided over by Dr. James Morris Page, dean of the academic department, who made a statement of the work during the past session. The total available income of the university has been increased, he said, to about $53,000 a year; the numerical strength of the general faculty by about 100 per cent; the attendance by about 12 per cent and the number of courses offered by about 25 per cent.

Announcement was made of the award of the following scholarships and fellowships:

The Isaac Carey scholarships to Archibald Cary Randolph, of Millwood, and Randolph Fitzhugh Mason, of Richmond.

The William Cabell Rives fellowship to Paul Micou, of Theological Seminary.

The final ball was held last night.

PAN-ANGLICAN CONGRESS.

The Pan-Anglican Congress opened for business in London yesterday with seven meetings, simultaneously held. The principal one was held in Albert Hall. The subject was "Marriage in Christendom." Some outspoken opinions were expressed upon remarriages after divorce.

Bishop William Crowell Doane, of Albany, N. Y., read a paper, in which he referred to the almost "shameful preeminence of America, in what one might almost call the divorce habit," the statistics of which were alarming and shocking to the last degree. The public conscience was, however, he continued, becoming stirred, and a widespread and strong movement was in progress in the United States toward reducing the causes of divorce and arresting the possibility of remarriage.

Bishop Doane afterward spoke in amplification of his paper. He asserted that in the matter of marriage the world had fallen upon evil days, and nowhere more than in the United States. There they had two kinds of polygamy, one synchronous, called Mormonism, and the other successive, called remarriage after divorce.

Born in Iowa.

Our family were all born and raised in Iowa, and have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy (made at Des Moines) for years. We know how good it is from long experience in the use of it. In fact, when in El Paso, Texas, the writer's life was saved by the prompt use of this remedy. We are now engaged in the mercantile business at Narcoossee, Fla., and have introduced the remedy here. It has proven very successful and is constantly growing in favor.—ENNIS BROS. A MISSING WIFE.

Philadelphia, June 16th 1908.

To the Editor of the Alexandria Gazette:

I wish you would do me the favor and try to find my wife through your paper. On June 1st she left Philadelphia with a shoe laster. This man, before coming to Philadelphia, lived on Henry street, your city. My wife, Lillian P. Wright, left two children, Hattie, aged 5 years, and George, 2 years. Both are now under the doctor's care and my doctor has told me that unless my little girl sees her mother she will die. If you will publish this you can state that my wife is welcome to return and I have forgiven her. My wife is 24 years old, a blonde, short and very good looking. She looks to be a girl of about 20 years. Please publish this as I have reasons to believe they are in Alexandria and she may read it and return to me and her babies. The man is 29 years old, 5 ft. 7 and a cigarette fiend and has a young daughter in Washington.

OFFICERS EXONERATED.

Capt. William L. Davis and Mate James H. Beach, of the steamer Trenton, which sank at her wharf at this port on May 3, have received letters exonerating them from all blame for the sinking of the boat. It is said that a similar letter has been sent to Joseph Williams, the colored deckhand who was held by a coroner's jury for the death of Stanley D. Posey, who was drowned when the boat went down. The letters received by Capt. Davis and Mate Beach are dated at Baltimore, Md., June 15, and read:

"You are hereby notified that we have this day found you to be not guilty of the charges preferred against you by this board under date of May 18, 1908, and do exonerate you from all responsibility of the sinking of the steamer Trenton and the drowning of a child that was on board at the time."

The letters are signed by Charles W. Wright and Edwin F. White, the United States steamboat inspectors.

ENFORCING SUNDAY LAWS.

All proprietors of stores who have heretofore conducted business in this city on Sunday or part of that day have been notified by the police that the law against such procedures will be enforced in the future. The shopkeepers are now notifying their customers that they must procure sufficient supplies before 12 o'clock Saturday night to last until Monday morning, as no Sunday business will be transacted. Most storekeepers are in no sense disgruntled, as they will be afforded an opportunity to enjoy a holiday on that day as will be their neighbors. Of course, they want the law enforced and the lid kept down on all.

BOY CARRIED TO WASHINGTON.

There was an anxious mother on the wharf of the steamer Charles Macalester when the boat stopped here about half past ten o'clock last night. The steamer was densely crowded with excursionists and the lady in coming from the boat had become separated from her little son. The mother's distress attracted the attention of most people upon the wharf. The little boy, however, was safe aboard the steamer, which was at that time on its way to Washington. About midnight the little fellow appeared at his home, having come from Washington on an electric train.

REFUSE IN ALLEYS.

Persons employed in the street cleaning department of the city say that careless people keep many alleys in an unsanitary and unsightly condition by continuing to cast trash into the same instead of placing it in barrels or other receptacles. Twenty-four hours after certain alleys have been cleaned their condition is as foul as ever.

THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

The closing exercises of the Episcopal Theological Seminary of Virginia, west of this city, took place at 10 o'clock this morning in the chapel of that institution. The alumni, students and professors of the seminary, together with Bishop Peterkin, who acted as president, formed a procession in Prayer Hall and marched to the chapel, the professors and Bishop Peterkin taking their seats on the platform of the chancel and the students sitting in the choir seats.

After a short opening service by Bishop Peterkin three graduating essays were read by Messrs. W. R. Bowie, of Virginia; J. J. Gravatt, jr., of Virginia, and Clinton Quin, of Kentucky. The members of the senior class who were relieved from the study of Hebrew received certificates on the subjects studied by them. They were Messrs. Willis Colgate Daugtry, M. A., Suffolk, Va.; Levin I. Insley, B. A., Bivalve, Md.; Thomas N. Lawrence, Stoneleigh, Va.; Walter R. Noe, Wilmington, N. C.; Eugene B. Perry-Ayscough, Baltimore, Md., Herbert Jakes, Boise Idaho.

The following were declared graduates and received the diplomas of the institution: M. S. Barnwell, B. A., Louisville, Ky.; W. R. Bowie, M. A., Richmond, Va.; Benjamin D. Chambers, B. A., Brunswick, Md.; Charles Clingman, B. A., Covington, Ky.; James D Gibson, B. A., Huntington, W. Va; John J. Gravatt, B. A., Richmond, Va.; John L. Jackson, B. A., Baltimore, Md.; James H. Lloyd, B. A., Lynchburg, Va.; Wallace N. Pierson, B. A., Syracuse, N. Y.; Clinton S. Quin, B. A., Kentucky; Henry Vaughan Saunders, B A., Maryland; Charles William Sydnor, B. A., southern Virginia; Walter Williams, B. A., Washington.

The graduating class was presented and its members received among the number of alumni. The essay before the alumni was then read by Rev. Herbert Scott Smith, of St. Margaret's Church, Washington. The alumni then adjourned to the refectory for dinner, where a number of toastes were given and responded to.

At the alumni session this afternoon memorial windows lately placed in the chapel were presented as follows: The window on the north side of the chancel given by Bishop Potter, of New York, in memory of Bishop Boone, of Kentucky, was presented in an address by the Rev. J. T. Cole, of Ogonta, Pa; that on the south side of the chancel, also given by Bishop Potter as a memorial to Bishop Johns, fourth bishop of Virginia, was presented by Dr. William M. Dame, of Baltimore. There were besides three windows in the choir, one in memory of Rev. Robert Hunt, the first minister of the colony at Jamestown Island, who celebrated the holy communion for the first time on these shores June 13, 1607, another to the memory of Bishop Ingle, of Hankow, China, and the last a memorial to Miss Mary Rhett, formerly matron of the seminary. Addresses of presentation for these were made respectively by the Rev. Mr. Pendleton, whose class gave the window; the Rev. R. K. Massie, D. D., of the seminary, a classmate of Bishop Ingle, on behalf of the class of 1891, and by Rev. J. P Tyler, who interested the alumni who attended the seminary during the time Miss Rhett was matron, in the window. The address of acceptance was made by Rev. Dr. Crawford, dean of the seminary.

The windows given by Bishop Potter are fine specimens of English glass and the others were made by the firm of Mayer & Co., of Munich, and reflect credit on that firm. They are a great addition to the seminary chapel. The exercises were of a very interesting character and a large number of clergy and lay delegates were in attendance, including many from distant points.

The exercises will close tomorrow with the ordination of candidates and the ordination sermon by Rev. R. A. Goodwin, of Richmond.

WEDDING.

Miss Edith Ramsay, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George William Ramsay, and Mr. Frank McCormick, a son of the late Thomas McCormick, of Clarke county, were married last night. The ceremony was performed in Christ Church at 8:30 o'clock by Rev. W. J. Morton. The chancel of the church was banked with palms, and the pillars on each side of the aisles were entwined with sweet peas and smilax. The bride, accompanied by her father, approached the altar, preceded by the ushers and her matron of honor, Mrs. Louis Scott. The bridegroom, attended by his cousin, Mr. George W. Lewis, met them at the chancel. The bride wore a white lace princess robe over chiffon and silk, a tulle veil caught with orange blossoms, and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and white sweet peas. Her matron of honor wore a robe of white lace and carried a bouquet of pink sweet peas. The ushers were Messrs. George Nelms Wise, of Newport News; Dr. Lewis M. Allen, of Baltimore, Md., Mr. Dennis Ramsay, a brother of the bride, and Arthur Herbert, of this city. Among the out-of-town guests at the ceremony were Miss Rose Elzey McCormick, of Clarke county, a sister of the bridegroom; Misses Mary and Marguerite Pattison, of Baltimore, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Reese, of Washington. Mr. and Mrs. McCormick left for the north to spend their honeymoon. They will make their home in Clarke county.

INJURED BY A TORPEDO.

Elsie Posey and Ada Henderson, two little girls, were engaged this morning on Fayette street, between Prince and Duke, in the dangerous pastime of playing with a railroad torpedo. It was finally exploded, seriously injuring the Posey girl and inflicting painful injuries on her companion. They were attended by Dr. O'Brien. The girls had found the torpedo in the street.

THE EXCURSION SEASON.

The excursion steamers which stopped at this city on their way down the river yesterday evening were crowded. The Charles Macalester, for Marshall Hall; the Queen Anne, for River View, and the Jamestown, which makes no landing, but runs about 30 miles down the river, are large and commodious steamers, and are patronized by many Alexandrians.

To City Taxpayers—Notice.

Collector's Office, June 17, 1908.

Notice is hereby given that the tax bills for 1908 are now in the hands of the Collector. The attention of parties interested is respectfully called to the following extract from the revenue bill of that year:

"Upon all bills paid in full by the 1st day of July, 1908, the Collector of Taxes shall allow a discount of ten per cent, and on all bills paid by the 1st day of September, 1908, he shall allow a discount of five per cent, and on all bills not paid on the 1st day of December, 1908, there shall be assessed and collected a penalty of five per cent upon the amount of said bills, and on all bills remaining unpaid on the 1st day of June, 1909, damages at the rate of six per centum per annum shall be paid."

Taxpayers would do well to call and pay at once in order to avoid the rush and crowd usually present on the last days in which the discount is allowed.

Bring a list to make sure you get bills for all your property, as the Collector will not be responsible or allow the discount after the time fixed by law. P. F. GORMAN,

TO THE OWNERS OF DOGS.

MAYOR'S OFFICE,
Alexandria, Va., June 6, 1908.

All persons owning or intending to keep any animal of the dog or canine species should come forward on or before and take out a license for the same from the Auditor. After the 30th of June all persons owning or harboring dogs without the required license are subject to a fine as the laws on the subject require of $3 or $5.

Complaint has been frequently made that many persons fail to take out their license, and that others pay on one or two dogs when owning and harboring more, or who send such dogs away during the summer months and bring them back in the fall.

Attention has been called to this evasion of the law, and policemen will report all such cases, and fines can be imposed upon those who fail to take out licenses after trial in the Police Court.

☞In order to avoid any mistakes persons who make applicat on for licenses would do well to write their names and number of residence, street, etc., on a card or paper when making application for their licenses to the Auditor.

Attention is also called to the fact that while the payment of a license tax is required by the laws of the city whether a dog is kept on the premises of the owner at all times or not, yet the payment of such tax does not entitle the dog to the unrestricted use of the streets and alleys of the city, both day and night, for it is provided by law that "The Mayor in addition at any and all times, in his discretion, by proclamation shall declare that all such dogs as above licensed shall be securely muzzled, and if any such dogs be found running at large during the continuance of such proclamation without the required muzzle they shall be seized by the police force, or other persons designated by the Mayor for such purposes," and conveyed to a suitable place and destroyed.

FRED. J. PAFF, Mayor.

Shadow Etiquette.

"I saluted the Kaffir chief respectfully and hearty," said the sailor. "Can you imagine my surprise when he give me a kick?

"'Get off my shadder,' he says.

"'Wot?'

"'Get off my shadder.'

"I was standing, by crinus, on his shadder, the shadder of his stomach. I skipped from there to the face. He groaned. When I got on to sunlit ground again he says to me:

"'Didn't you never have no bringin' up? Look at you now, lengthenin' out your shadow longer'n mine. Crouch, consarn you, or I'll warm your hide with this here club.'"

"Them Kaffirs," he said, "regards their shadders as part of themselves. A polite Kaffir would no more walk on another's shadder than a polite American would hit a lady. They have a regular shadder etiquette. You mustn't on no account let your shadder be longer than a superior's. You must crouch to make it smaller, and that there crouch for the purpose of diminishin' the shadder is thought by the Spencerian philosophers—I don't say I think so, mind—to be the origin of the bow."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

Much Law, Poor Case.

Among lawyers there is a saying that in the trial of a case an attorney if light on facts must be heavy on law. The other day an attorney was preparing to leave his office in one of the big office buildings to go to the courthouse to try a case. From the shelves of his library he had taken many large law books containing decisions and opinions of higher courts. At intervals a boy went in and out of the door, and each time he bore in his arms a stack of the books, which he carried to an express wagon that stood in the street below. The attorney was to use the books in the courtroom. Another lawyer, who is of southern birth and who always addresses his friends with some army title, watched the boy as he went in and out carrying the law books. Then he dug his hands deep into his trousers pockets and said to the lawyer:

"Well, Ah'll sweah, kunnel, you must have no case at all."—Kansas City Times.

Snow and Rain.

The first man to whom it ever occurred to find out how much rain was represented by a given fall of snow was Alexander Brice of Kirknewton, who in March, 1765, made a simple experiment with the contents of a stone jug driven face downward into over six inches of snow. What he learned was that a greater or less degree of cold or of wind when the snow falls and its "lying a longer or shorter time on the ground" will occasion a difference in the weight and in the quantity of water produced, "but if," he added, "I may trust to the above trials, which I endeavored to perform with care, snow newly fallen, with a moderate gale of wind, freezing cold, will produce a quantity of water equal to one-tenth part of its bulk." So that a fall of snow of ten inches represents a rainfall of one inch.—London Chronicle.

The Adder.

A full grown adder may measure two feet in length and about six inches around the thickest part of its body. Its movements are sluggish, and of course the idea that it is capable of transferring its head from one extremity to the other every six months is due simply to superstition. The fact is that the tail of this snake does not terminate in a point, as with ophidians generally, but is stumpy and resembles the head so much that it is difficult for an observer situated at a distance of a few yards to distinguish the one from the other; hence the story of its being two headed, the fallacy of which no intelligent observer could fail to detect.—Pioneer.

Courtesy.

The parvenu stood it till he could stand it no longer.

"James," he cried out piteously, "tell me the worst! You find my table manners execrable!"

But his new butler, bowing first with stately condescension, only replied:

"As a matter of professional courtesy Hi cannot hentertain, much less hexpress, hany hopinion which might seem in hanyway to reflect on my predecessor 'ere."

And he bowed again and was silent.—Puck.

The Wings of Time.

Methuselah was walking in his garden.

"My goodness," he exclaimed suddenly, "there's another flower on that century plant! Why, it seems but yesterday since I plucked a blossom from it."

He walked slowly toward an oak tree 200 years old which he had tenderly raised from an acorn.

"Ah, me," he mused, "how time flies!"—Harper's Weekly.

The Larger Class.

"Of course," said the seeker after knowledge, "we seldom hear 'thee' and 'thou' nowadays. They're used mostly by poets, aren't they?"

"No," replied the editor; "they're used mostly by people who think they're poets."—Catholic Standard and Times.

GETTING A PHONE.

Numbers of householders who are desirous of installing a telephone are deterred by ignorance of the departmental regulations and the fear of red tape. The procedure is really so simple that a few notes, forestalling the efforts of the proposed postoffice publicity department, may prove of interest to intending subscribers.

The first step is to write to the deputy P. M. G., stating the position of the premises and asking particulars of the fees payable. By return post you will receive a printed card (Form XO, 982) stating that your letter has been duly received and is having attention. This card is sent by the office boy and has no real bearing on the subsequent proceedings.

After this effort the department takes a brief rest to recover its strength and then plunges into a series of abstruse calculations over a period of some weeks. The result of this mountain in labor is an absurdly inadequate mouse in the shape of a circular (Form CB, 67) informing you that your telephone will cost you £5 per annum for a maximum of 2,000 originating calls. If this startling example of departmental omniscience does not overpower you, you may write to the D. P. M. G. accepting his offer and instructing him to proceed with the work.

Within ten days or thereabout you will receive another circular (Form C, 1546), requesting you to sign the attached agreement and pay twelve months' rent in advance. Having done this, you may safely take a holiday.

After an interval of, say, a month it is as well to write to the D. P. M. G., pointing out that you have only a lease of the premises and are therefore anxious to have the telephone as soon as is convenient. You will receive no reply to this (Form XY, 1273, being out of print), but a few weeks later a very civil spoken young man will present a half gallon "billy" at your back door and request a little hot water for breakfast. If you direct attention to the size of the billy the man will point out two of his mates who are sitting on your roof and two others standing in an expectant attitude in your back garden, and a sixth man will be found standing at the head of a linesman's handcart out in the right of way. The men on the roof are discussing where they will fix your telephone wire, while the men in the garden are waiting to catch them in case they roll off. This tends to show the perfection of the organization which exists in all great government departments.

If the weather keeps fine the necessary wires will soon be connected, and nothing then remains but to obtain the telephone instrument. After waiting, say, two or three weeks without result you should write to the daily papers, directing attention to the facts and signing yourself "Disgusted Taxpayer." On the day following the insertion of your letter the "official explanation" (Form XO, 73) will appear in a prominent position in the news columns. The explanation will set out that the postal department is not to blame, since it ordered seven telephone instruments in 1904, but the demand has been so great that these have already been used. It will further explain that tenders are being called for ten additional instruments and arrangements are being made for prompt delivery. Again, it will state that all applications are dealt with strictly in order of priority, and as soon as the 1,196 back orders are completed "Disgusted Taxpayer's" application will receive immediate consideration.

The same day's evening paper will contain an interview with the minister concerned, who will express regret that "Disgusted Taxpayer" did not write direct to the department under his own name. The minister will add that he is completely reorganizing the department, and, although only nine months in office, he has already had two telegraph poles repainted and a piece of orange peel picked off the steps of the G. P. O. The interview will conclude with a statement that the minister has "called for a report." This is a most arduous and dangerous undertaking, which cannot be safely attempted by any one drawing less than £2,000 a year, with prospects of £200 increase.

As the result of the publicity given to your case by the press a telephone instrument will be sent out to your house, and you must then act with the utmost circumspection if you would avoid disaster. Foolish people with no knowledge or departmental methods are apt to directly address the instrument fitter, saying, "I want the telephone placed here in the hall." This, however, is a fatal mistake. The best way is to suggest, with due diffidence, that the telephone should be placed under the kitchen sink. The fitter will say that is impossible and express his intention of putting it over the drawing room mantelpiece. At this stage, with a little tact and a violently expressed preference for the sink, you will succeed in having the instrument set up in the hall, where you wanted it.

Your troubles are now over, and at the modest charge of £5 per annum in advance you have a piece of furniture which is an ornament to any house. In the event of your ever desiring to use your new telephone you should first read the instructions most carefully, and if you are connected to a suburban exchange it is always as well to drop a post card to the manager the day before you ring up. Attention to this little point will insure the prompt attendance of an operator when you do ring, and you will then learn without unnecessary loss of time that the number you want is engaged.

Three months or thereabout after the telephone is installed your name (incorrectly spelled and with some one else's initials) will be duly inserted in the official telephone directory, and earth will hold no further joys in store.

It will be seen from this that installing a telephone is a perfectly simple operation, and, if due regard is paid to the hints here given, the whole thing can be fixed up within the year. —Australian Exchange.

No Need of Suffering from Rheumatism.

It is a mistake to allow anyone to suffer from rheumatism, as the pain can always be relieved, and in most cases a cure effected by applying Chamberlain's Liniment. The relief from pain which it affords is alone worth many times its cost. It makes sleep and rest possible. Even in cases of long standing this liniment should be used on account of the relief which it affords. Do not be discouraged until you have given it a trial. For sale by W. F.
